RCU Names Chief Business Credit Administrator

Eau Claire, WI – RCU has named Glen Kennison as Chief Business Credit Administrator. Glen is responsible for overseeing and managing the activities of the Business Loan Credit Department, including management and oversight of underwriting processes, credit risk management practices, and analyst staff of the business lending department. Glen will also oversee the business loan collections.

Glen comes to RCU with a variety of experience in the financial industry. Most recently, Glen was the Chief Credit Officer of a community bank in the Twin Cities area. Prior to that, he was a Senior Lender with S&C Bank in New Richmond and became a Business Lender with AnchorBank when AnchorBank acquired S&C. Before that, he spent 17 years as a bank examiner for the FDIC based in Eau Claire.

Glen graduated with a bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He is also a graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at UW-Madison.

Glen currently resides in New Richmond but expects to relocate back to the Chippewa Valley in the near future.
